Inhalt

Kommentar	Syllabus: The course, including content and location, can be found in the current syllabus on Moodle. Enrollment password: AccountingTheory25_26! Course content: This course considers accounting from an information content perspective. In particular, the course examines the elements of financial and managerial accounting, and constructs a theoretical perspective that treats accounting as a source of information. Thereby, the course covers both financial and managerial accounting. Lecturer: Prof. Dr. Christian Hofmann  Contact: Dr. Hoa Ho (Hoa.Ho@lmu.de)

The LMU Munich School of Management is structured in terms of content into clusters and cross-sectional topics. The bundling of competencies in research and teaching guarantee networked communication and professional exchange at a top level. In total, there are five clusters at the School of Management with different research foci. The clusters work closely with the Centers of Excellence and other scientific institutions.

Final Learning Agreement

- To be done in the first week(s) of the semester, the earlier the more focus on the courses is possible.
- On the other hand please wait until you are sure to have the FINAL course choice – also check the exam dates to avoid clashes/ time shifts
- Go to several classes in the first week(s) of the semester and then decide which classes you take
- Two possibilities (ask the home university which one they prefer):
  - fill in the „Changes“ part in the initial LA
  - set up a new agreement

Do not overstrain yourself!
