

Job Title: Interns (m/f/d) in Global Private Debt (Three Positions) at AIM SE

Allianz Investment Management (AIM) is the internal investment manager of the Allianz Group, responsible for managing the risk/return profile of its approx. € 700 bn investment portfolio. We develop, manage and implement the investment strategy for Allianz's policyholders worldwide - sustainably and responsibly. Our global network of more than 500 employees from over 60 countries is organized in regional hubs located in Munich/Stuttgart, Milan, Minneapolis, Paris, and Singapore. It offers multifaceted career opportunities for outstanding investment talents.

AIM provides the perfect opportunity to embark on or continue your international career. AIM continues to grow and supports its employees to do the same. We believe that work should be rewarding, and that good work should be rewarded. We offer opportunities and strive for excellence. And our actions are guided first and foremost by high ethical standards and our sense of commitment to society.

Job purpose/role

The Private Debt and Opportunities team designs and steers the alternative debt portfolio for the Allianz Group. Private debt is one of the fastest moving asset classes of the last decade, and we are looking for support to source, analyze and implement the highest quality fund investment opportunities across senior, mezzanine and distressed credit strategies, in corporate lending, infrastructure debt as well as real estate debt spaces.

Key responsibilities

- Contribute to complex and large volume private debt fund investment proposals through qualitative and quantitative due diligence analysis in areas such as investment strategy, restructuring expertise, ESG, historical track record, and expected returns
- Evaluate and map various strategies within the private debt space in the screening phase
- Prepare for and actively participate in meetings with asset managers and decision makers
- Utilize data analysis tools like PowerBI, Python, R, and SQL to support investment decisions and portfolio management

Key requirements / Skills / Experience

Requirements

- You must be registered as a student for the entire duration of the work term. Please provide proof of your student status (matriculation certificate or equivalent).
- You have completed your undergraduate studies in finance, economics, mathematics, data science, statistics, computer science, or a related field with solid credentials and are currently registered in a master's program in finance, data science, or a related field. Please provide your undergraduate and graduate school transcripts.
- You have experience with data analysis tools such as PowerBI, Python, R, SQL, VBA, or other database and data analytics tools.
- You are fully fluent in English. German is a plus. Please provide certificates demonstrating your English writing proficiency level (e.g., IELTS, TOEFL, GRE, or GMAT score sheets, including expired ones). If no such certificate is available, please explain your circumstances in your cover letter.
- Please submit your resume and cover letter in English.
- Please submit any German employment testimonials (Arbeitszeugnis) in German.
- Please limit your cover letter to 400 words, and please clearly describe the following:
 - o Your motivation to do an internship in the private debt space
 - o How did you learn about this opportunity
 - o Your availability, including the exact desired start and end dates, as well as any flexibility
 - o The expected end date of your student status
 - o Whether the internship is voluntary, or compulsory by your university program. For compulsory internship, please also indicate the minimum internship length requirement of your university

Qualifications

- We are looking for people who take initiative and can work independently within an international and dynamic environment

- You are experienced in using Microsoft Office, with a preference for knowledge of database and data analytics tools, such as PowerBI, Python, R, SQL, and VBA.
- You have an inquisitive mind and learn quickly.
- You are interested in capital markets and investments; fixed income know-how is advantageous.
- You have strong analytical skills and pay attention to details.
- Previous work experience in the financial industry is a plus.

Additional information

You must have a valid enrollment certificate issued by your university for the entire duration of your internship. For non-EU/EEA nationals who study in Germany, you may not surpass the maximum working day allowance during your internship with us.

Job start: One position starting in fall 2025, two positions starting in 2026. Flexible start date; please specify your availability / full-time

What we offer

- Our buddy program, a welcome event and a structured onboarding to help you get started with AIM.
- A broad range of learning opportunities will help you staying relevant in your current role and growing into future workplace demands.
- An open and international working environment with a diverse and inclusive culture will inspire your everyday work. A working model which balances remote and office based work will give you the flexibility to organize the way you work.
- A company pension scheme, well-being initiatives, sports offers and other local benefits will allow you achieving a positive work life balance.
