Reminder - ifo Annual Meeting 2024

06/27/2024, 01:00 pm – 05:15 pm

Geschwister-Scholl-Platz 1, Assembly Hall ("Große Aula") in LMU's Main Building

The public session of the ifo Annual Meeting brings together science, business, and politics. It is jointly organized by the ifo Institute and the Center for Economic Studies (CES) of LMU Munich and is dedicated to a current economic policy topic:

"The Social Market Economy in 2049 –
What Will Become of Our Prosperity and Who Will Share in it?"

Like no other economic system, the social market economy stands for the successful combination of economic efficiency and social balance; it is regarded as the foundation for prosperity and stability in Germany. Competition, which keeps prices low, and welfare state protection are intended to keep the "size of the economic pie" and the "evenness of its distribution" in the best possible balance. This endeavor makes the social market economy an economic system that enables broad participation in prosperity and offers support to those who are dependent on solidarity-based assistance. The model has proven itself since the Second World War, even if the further development of the social market economy remains the subject of controversial debate.

On the occasion of the ifo Institute's 75th anniversary, we want to reflect on how we can use this guiding principle to overcome important future challenges. What further developments of the social market economy are necessary to ensure that prosperity continues to grow and reaches all sections of the population?

There will be an opening speech by Christian Lindner, Federal Minister of Finance

an introduction by Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. Clemens Fuest, President of ifo Institute followed by a panel discussion with:

Dr. Simone Bagel-Trah, Chairwoman of the Supervisory Board and the Shareholders' Committee of Henkel AG & Co. KGaA,
Dr. Annette Niederfranke, Former State Secretary, Director of the International Labor Organization (ILO) / Germany,
Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. Monika Schnitzer, Chairwoman of the German Council of Economic Experts,
Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. Clemens Fuest, President of ifo Institute (Moderation)

and a lecture by:
Prof. Dr. Albrecht Ritschl, LSE
"The ifo Institute: 75 Years on the Pulse of Economic Policy"

The presentation will be held in German. The presentation will also be livestreamed. Recordings will be available a few days later on demand in the Media Center.
