LMU LUDWIG-MAXIMILIANS-UNIVERSITÄT MÜNCHEN

Lehrstuhl für Byzantinistik
Fakultät für Kulturwissenschaften

NOMOS LECTURE SERIES

All lectures take place from: 4pm to 6pm

Winter Term 2026/27

22.10.2026	What Makes a Monastic Library? Saint Catherine's Monastery through the Lens of Its Manuscripts Giulia Rossetto (Vienna) Place: Amalienstraße 52 (Historicum), K001
17.12.2026	Transmitting Syriac Law, or How to Deal with Canonical Literature in Syriac: Searching for Canonical Collection in Western-Syriac Manuscripts Carlo Emilio Biuzzi (Ghent) Transmitting Syriac Law, or How to Deal with Canonical Literature in Syriac: An East-Syrian Perspective from Manuscripts, through the Lens of the Collection of Eliya I (ca. 1030) Giovanni Gomiero (Ghent) Place: Amalienstraße 52 (Historicum), K001
21.01.2027	Elite Women and Monastic Foundations: Some Hypotheses on Modes and Purposes Zara Pogossian (Florence) Place: Amalienstraße 52 (Historicum), K001
18.02.2027	The Survival, Adaptation, and Transformation of Late Roman Documentary Culture in Early Arab Egypt (7th–9th Century) Lajos Berkes (HU Berlin) Place: Amalienstraße 52 (Historicum), K001

All NOMOS lectures will be broadcast via Zoom. To register for a talk, please send an email to: Zachary.Chitwood@lmu.de

For further information:
https://nomosproject.de/

Funded by the European Union
European Research Council
Established by the European Commission

NOMOC