Examples of valid language proof

- University entrance qualification, e.g. German Abitur, with explicit proof of at least B2 English proficiency (i.e. the certificate that you will upload in the online application form needs to explicitly state the CEFR level)
- Official school statement that your program for university entrance qualification was exclusively taught in English
- Official university statement that your undergraduate program was exclusively taught in English
- International English Language Testing System (IELTS) with an overall band score of at least 5.5
- Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), including the TOEFL iBT Special Home Edition, with a total score of at least 72
- B2 First Cambridge Certificate in English with an overall scale of at least 160
- Cambridge Certificate in Advanced English (CAE) or Cambridge Certificate of Proficiency in English (CPE)
- Duolingo English Test with a total score of at least 100
- Michigan English Test (MET), Examination for the Certificate of Competency in English (ECCE) or Examination for the Certificate of Proficiency in English (ECPE)
- Telc English certificate with proof of at least B2 CEFR English proficiency
- Pearson English International Certificate (PTE General) at least Level 3

Examples of non-valid language proof

- Online "examinations" that were conducted without online proctoring and without ID check (i.e. without validation that the person who took the exam is the person who is subsequently listed on the exam certificate), for example the EF-SET test.
- Having written a bachelor's thesis in English
- Having taken some university classes in English
- Having taken part in a university exchange such as Erasmus