

Multiple Diversities: A Day at the Rachel Carson Center Landhaus

Date: 18.05.2022

Location: Hermannsdorfer Landwerkstätten, Hermannsdorf 7, 85625 Glonn, Germany

- 9:30 Departure from the Rachel Carson Center, Leopoldstr. 11a, 80802 München
- Bus Talk on “Diversity in international research groups: what we learned so far” by Dr. Alessandro Rippha, VW Freigeist Fellow and PI of “Environing Infrastructures: Communities, Ecologies, and China’s “Green” Development in Contemporary Southeast Asia”
- 10:30 Arrival in Hermannsdorf and Tour of RCC Landhaus
- 11:00-12:30 Tour of the Hermannsdorfer Landwerkstätten by Karl Schweisfurth, head of Gut Hermannsdorf e.V. and pioneer in ecological framing practices
- 12:30 Lunch
- 14:00 Introduction of interdisciplinary research community by the RCC Landhaus Fellows
- “Some Reflections on Diversity and Ambiguity of Organic Farming in Southern Spain and Beyond” Talk on Diversity and Ecological Farming” by Andreas Jünger, environmental historian
- 15:30 Free time to explore
- 16:00 Departure via bus back to Munich

To register, please click this link: <https://tinyurl.com/mssjzfx3>